The beautiful 105-acre main campus of CBU University is situated in the heart of Riverside’s historic Magnolia Avenue district just a short drive from popular beaches and mountain resorts. The main campus is comprised of more than 30 buildings featuring 94,800 sq. ft.

The Eugene and Billie Yeager Center accommodates various residence halls, including multiple apartment complexes and modular dorm housing. The university also boasts a 270-seat theater, large fitness center, one of the region’s largest aquatic centers, the Annie Gabriel library, the Van Dyne gym and a new John Hawkins music building, which is one of the nation’s most advanced music production and recording facilities.

ACCOMMODATION

- High quality, multi bedded rooms varying in size, (mainly 3’s & 4’s) in self-contained en-suite apartments

If staying during the final week of July, accommodation could be in dormitory style halls of residence, which contain modern twin bedded rooms with shared facilities. Halls include common relaxation areas.
