This beautiful school is set in two hundred acres of magnificent rolling Suffolk countryside, looking out over the River Stour on the Shotley Peninsula. It's peaceful rural location makes it the ideal place to study yet it is only five miles from the busy county town of Ipswich. The school was originally founded at Greenwich in 1712 to educate the sons of seafarers and moved to its present location in 1933. The School is perfect for groups of students and can offer up to a maximum of 300 beds, boasting some excellent facilities in a stunning location.

ACCOMMODATION

- Multi – bedded partitioned rooms with shared facilities
- Full board – Breakfast, lunch and evening meal. Packed lunch with full day excursions.

Maximum number of beds: 300

FACILITIES

- Indoor heated swimming pool
- 14 hard and 6 grass tennis courts
- Playing fields
- Outdoor basketball court / volleyball courts
- Indoor sports hall
- Acres of playing fields
